

Lotz House

CIVIL WAR HOUSE MUSEUM

Battle of Nashville Tour

December 17, 2011

8 am to 4 pm

This year marks the 147th Anniversary of the Battle of Nashville. Join historians Thomas Cartwright and David Currey for a day-long tour of the battlefield.

Learn about:

Occupied Nashville, George H. Thomas and John Bell Hood, Attack at the Redoubts, The Story of Hylan Rosser, The United States Colored Troops, Mary Bradford's Rally Cry

Battlefield Sites:

Ft. Negley, Belmont/Sunnyside, Battle of Nashville Monument, Granbury's Lunette, The Confederate Redoubts, Bradford House, Shy's Hill, The Stone Wall, Glen Leven, Peach Orchard Hill

Maps and Images of Civil War Nashville and the battlefield available for download to your smartphone or iPad.

Price Per Person: $75

The tour begins promptly at 8 a.m. and ends at 4 p.m. at the

Ft. Negley Visitor's Center

Lunch included in the price

Tour is limited to 40 people

Please call 615-790-7190 to make a reservation

(please provide an email address when registering so you can download maps and images)
